

Directions

By Air

The best airport for both overseas and domestic flights is Manchester. This is the third busiest airport in the UK with a wide range of services. More information can be found at www.manairport.co.uk

By Rail

There are up to 15 rail connections to Bangor each day from Manchester Airport (reduced service at weekends) and journey times vary from 2 hours 15 minutes to 3 hours. All journeys require one change, usually at Crewe, but some require two changes. There is an on-line timetable and booking facility at www.nationalrail.co.uk

Bangor has excellent rail connections to all parts of the UK with direct trains from London taking as little as 3.5 hours. An on-line timetable and booking facility is available at www.nationalrail.co.uk

By Road

Visitors driving to Bangor are advised to approach North Wales via the M6 and M56 before joining the A55 expressway to Bangor. The M6 provides links to all parts of the UK via the motorway network. Follow the blue or red route to reach the Halls & Conference office.

By Ferry

High speed and conventional services sail from the Dublin area to the port of Holyhead, 25 miles from Bangor. Convenient ferries from Northern Europe (Holland, Germany and Scandinavia) arrive at ports in the Humber Estuary from where the M62 motorway leads to the M6.
